

Paul Robb – Commercial Director, 20 years business experience in major international financial institutions specialising in financial control, budgeting, managing large (greater than 1m euros) projects. Has completed more than 5 major application builds (from business requirements to production role out), expert in outsourcing IT, including negotiations, contracting, and post-implementation activities. Experienced in managing small to medium size project team (up to 20 staff).